

1718 Consumer Confidence Report for Public Water System City of Portland

This is your water quality report for drinking water delivered to you.

For up to the minute information about your local water supply, contact your local water utility or visit www.portlandwater.org

For more information, regarding this report, contact:

Name Mr. E. J. Smith
Phone 503.555.1234

This report includes information about the quality of your drinking water. There are many factors that can affect the quality of drinking water. See the back of the report for more information.

Drinking Water Quality

Drinking water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.

Water quality is important for your health.